SOUTH RICHMOND MAGISTRATE COWAN SAYS

Imposes $50 Fine and Thirty-Day Jail Sentence on Alexander Tingle.

ORPHANS' HOME ASKS HELP

Issues Appeal for Contributions to Enable Institution to Provide for Little Ones in Its Care-Club to Discuss Franchise.

Alexander Tingle, a young white man of South Richmond, was convicted of selling liquor without a license by Mag-Istrate S. G. Cowan, of Chesterheld County, yesterday, and fined $50, sentenced to thirty days in jail and required to give bond in the sum of $500. Tingle, who has been selling fish from a wagon through the county, pleaded not guilty, and in substantiation of his claim, six negroes testified that they had asked him to bring them oleven pints of whiskey as a matter of accommodation.

The case was warmly contested by both the prosecution and the defense. Attorney J. M. Turner represented Tingle, while Commonwealth's Attorney Haskins Hobson conducted the prosecution. There was considerable argument over the law, which read "that a bond of $500 shall be required." Attorney Turner contended that this left the decision with the magistrate, but Squire Cowam held that it was mandatory.

Orphans' Home Needs Aid.

Contributions are coming in slowly for the Bethany Home for Orphans, near Bon Air, Chesterheid County, and unless aid is sent soon this will not be a happy Christmas for the little inmates of the institution. Mrs. W. J. Carter, 1161 Porter Street, and Miss Ella Mayo, 1501 Porter Street, requested yesterday that an earnest appeal be made in behalf of the home. The institution is supported almost wholly by voluntary contributions from South Richmond. Offerings of food, money or clothing will be gratefully received. The soliciting committee is working hard to enable Santa Claus to bring a well-filled stocking to each of the children.

Action will probably be taken at the regular meeting of the South Rich-mond Democratic Club to-morrow night Fraternal Hall, on the petition of e Virginia Railway and Power Com-ny for a blanket franchise. The atter was discussed at the last meeting, but nothing was done.
